Subject: Interest Announcement for Holiday Weekend Details

California is looking for law enforcement assistance to work major holiday weekends at several off highway vehicle (OHV) areas in southern California. The most critical need is for uniformed law enforcement assistance at the Imperial Sand Dunes Recreation Area/Glamis. Personnel for Emergency Services (first responder/EMT) and public contact/visitor services are also needed at this location.

All details must be coordinated and approved by your immediate supervisor. The receiving offices will cover all overtime, travel and vehicle charges. It is recommended that individuals who have never been to these areas consider coming several days prior to the start of the detail to become familiar with the areas and type of potential incidents that could be encountered. The time period for the Thanksgiving holiday would be for the period of November 20-26, 2001. Training on ATV's and portable alcohol sensors may also be available during the longer detail.

Your dedication and willingness to participate in these programs is greatly appreciated. The Interest Announcement and Special Details Application forms are attached for your convenience. Please fax the Special Details Application paperwork to Roger Bruckner, Special Agent-in-Charge, at Fax No. (916) 978-4455.
